free of cost.

Now For DECEMBER.

In order to greet this opening winter month in a manner befitting its importance, we propose to make a price offering that will warm the very cockles of the popular heart.

We are better enabled to do this because just now in the great textile markets of the world concessions are the order of the day. Nobody is in better condition to take advantage of these than ourselves, and what we get—

We Divide With You.

America's greatest importing firm has closed out to us at OUR PRICE the entire balance of their importations of rich and novel designs in cheviot suitings.

These "stuffs" are from the celebrated looms located at Huddersfield, ENGLAND. Among this "NEW CONGRESS" of suitings you'll find all the latest colorings known to the fashionable tailoring world. You'll find the new shades of brown—green—and London smoke effects. You'll find plain mixtures—fancy checks—over-plaid effects—and neat stripes.

Just think of it—this magnificent array of woollens from England's choicest looms have crossed the broad Atlantic to be here in time to greet the assembling of the American Congress.

Not a suit from off any of these stuffs is worth less than $30. Any tailor in the city who carries as fine a quality of goods will charge you from $40 to $45 for a suit. Ready-made men never handle goods as fine as these.

Your OPTION of this magnificent array of Huddersfield suitings will be made-to-your-measure for only

Here's a Novelty!
Real Coffee.

And I've been lucky in getting it. A Blend of Old Government Potting Java and Genuine Private Plantation Mocha? Different from anything else sold in the city. Has a delightful aroma—and in strength far surpasses the ordinary kinds sold at the price. It is a real coffee. You see, I didn't know if I could do the fruit so well as the Real Coffee is. To be had pulverized or ground.

THE SOCIAL WORLD

live euchre last Tuesday evening at the residence of Miss C. C. Hennrich, 1324 R street northwest. Mr. and Mrs. Farmer captured the first prize, and Miss Bertha Arth and Mr. Pierson the second.

Mrs. Herman C. Hennrich, 1324 R street northwest, will not receive on Wednesdays during the month of December.

Mrs. Peter A. Witmer and her sister, Miss Mattie Brewer, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Witmer, 1918 Pennsylvania avenue, for the past two weeks, have returned to their home in Hagerstown, Md.

The Misses Curtiss, Smythe and Nelson of Capitol Hill have gone to Leonardtown for a month.

A surprise party was given Miss Minnie Webb at her residence on 19th street Wednesday evening. A program of music and recitation was rendered, including a banjo duet by Mr. Rodgers and Miss Faret.

Mrs. William Waldecker is at the residence of her father, Rudolph Biehn, 622 3d street northwest, where she will be pleased to see her friends.

The parlors of the Minneapolis were filled by the Short Story Club and its friends Wednesday evening. A piano solo and the reading of the minutes were followed by the story of the evening, "Love and Law," by Mr. H. Whitaker. A novel feature consisted of the twentieth century sketches, four in number, limited to five minutes each, were given by Mrs. Robinson and Calver, and Misses Bennett and Huddleston.

In methods lively and serious. Songs by Mrs. Townsend and Mrs. Pennybacker, two fine recitations by Mr. Edward Walsh and a whistling solo and encore by Miss Constance Herworth, filled the program.

The C. S. Club met on Tuesday evening at 600 Massachusetts avenue northeast. Act II of Hamlet was read and discussed. Reminiscences of Whitaker were given by the members present. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Barton Bean, assisted by Mr. Patton, and some delightful music brought to a close a pleasant evening.

The Baroness de Charette, who was the daughter of General Polk of Tennessee, is the guest during her brief visit in Washington of Mrs. Thomas T. Turner, 2158 Florida avenue. Gen. Charette, who is a baron, was killed in the battle of the Marston, was the daughter of the Duc de Berri, son of Charles X, who was assassinated at the grand opera in Paris, consequently he has in his veins the blood of Henri IV. He is a nephew of the late Comte de Chambord. His heir is Antony Van Lee Charette, the son of his second marriage. His boy is the descendant through his mother, Gen. Anthony Wayne and Col. Wm. Polk, revolutionary heroes. Madame Charette has lately been the guest of the Prince and Princess of Wales on their yacht. She is a cousin of the late President Polk.

BY JAPANESE ARTISTS.

A Rare Collection from the Land of the Rising Sun to Be Exhibited Here.

Lovers of Japanese and Chinese art, of whom there are many in Washington, will have a rare chance to gratify their taste next week when the private collection of Mr. H. Deakin, of Yokohama, will be placed on exhibition at the art galleries of M. B. Lattimer & Co., 1229-51 G street, preliminary to the auction sale which commences Monday, December 9. In the collection are magnificent specimens of jades, crystals, porcelains, bronzes, enamels, ivory carvings, Meizan Satsuma, swords, sword guards, cabinet specimens, embroideries, screens, etc.

Almost every phase of the art development of the two most artistic races of Asia, if that of the world, is illustrated in this collection, which is the fruit of many years' residence in China and Japan, though some of the objects have been acquired very recently during the war fever in Japan, under the impulse of which many Japanese of rank have parted with their treasures to devote the proceeds to patriotic purposes. An example of this is the extraordinary display of brocades, purchased from the family of a famous Daimio. Art students will be interested also in a wonderful collection of old Japanese prints and illustrations by the most famous masters.

The art of the specimens in the collection, from two mammoth bronze koros down to the most exquisite of ivory carvings, and snuff boxes carved from jade, bronze, rose-crystal and other semi-precious stones.

The most expensive works are to be found among the vases. Of these the three most remarkable are small ones in enamel, of Nankaiwa Sotoku, the court enameleur of Tokio. One is of a rich heliotrope hue, another of yellow ground, and the third of a brilliant ruby red. Another vase that is bound to attract attention is a dainty little peachbloss blue and three-quarters inches high. Still more valuable is one of the gems of the collection, is a magnificent specimen of cherry red of the Kang-hai era (seventeenth century).

THE BIGGEST CLUBS.

The House of Commons is the Best and Cheapest Resort in the World.

From Chambers' Journal.

A member of the house of commons is allowed to attach to his name the magic letters "M. P.," which are a source of pride and gratification to himself and secure for him the respect and deference of others. These initials undoubtedly contribute, too, to his social status. Doors of social circles, hitherto locked and barred, are open wide to him, and invitations to social functions in the houses of the great and wealthy members of his party reach him during the session. Then he is a member of "the best club in London." It is, indeed, frequently denied that the house of commons still maintains that pre-eminence as a social haunt of men which it is universally acknowledged once rightly belonged to it. But, as a matter of fact, it is more of a club now than it ever has been in its centuries' existence.

It is provided with handsome dining rooms, smoking rooms, reading rooms, and only this year it advanced another important stage in its continuous development as a social club by having a suite of bath rooms and dressing rooms added to its entourage. In its smoking room may be met, in the present relaxation of a chat and gossip, not only some of the most distinguished men in the kingdom, but a far greater variety of types of men than can be encountered in the smoking room of any club in London.

On the Maine Coast.

From the Lexington Journal.

Fishing and farming do not go well together, as the season for planting crops is just the one when the harvest of the sea must be gathered; consequently one sees little cultivated land along the Maine coast. And when for a time the sea fails to give up its riches, it is hard pulling for those who depend upon its products for a living. This is reported to be the case this year, and a hard winter is frowning on many of the little settlements on this coast. The fishing last summer was poor, the lobster season short, the demand for clams less than was expected, and the sardine season much shorter than usual. The captain of a steamer in Portland Friday said already twenty families on the mainland, not far from there, are in need of assistance, while on Mullaly Island things are even worse, many people now living on bread, molasses and fish, and suffering from lack of sufficient clothing.

Handy Boys.

From Harper's Bazar.

Miss Dauber—"That's a picture I did myself. It's a basket of fruit."

Friend—"Yes? But I don't see any fruit."

Miss Dauber—"I know. You see, I didn't think I could do the fruit so well as the basket, so I put those boys in, who have stolen it."

Nothing to Receive.

From Brooklyn Life.

Judge—"What is the use of appointing a receiver for it is corporation? There is nothing left to receive."

Lawyer—"Your honor, I will show by numerous cases that it is not customary to appoint a receiver while there is anything left to receive."

"THE WIDE WORLD 'ROUND."

United Testimony of the Globe Upon the Greatest of Modern Discoveries.—What the Nations Say.

UNITED STATES	ENGLAND	GERMANY	SWITZERLAND
 R. A. Gunn, M. D., New York Medical College, says: "In severe cases of Bright's disease, where all other remedies and treatments failed, I have effected permanent cures with Warner's Safe Cure. In all ailments where the blood is in an unhealthy condition, and the general health impaired, the advantage gained from the use of Warner's Safe Cure is remarkable."	 Rev. J. Wilson Haffenden, Birmingham, England, says: "I have for years, since I left India, been a perfect martyr to indigestion, and have tried various doctors and their medicines without any permanent benefit. It was induced to try Warner's Safe Cure, and Pills, with the result that I am now completely restored to health, entirely, by the use of Warner's Safe Cure."	 Dr. Fisher, Government district physician at Neuchâtel, Switzerland, declares: "I have many patients who are suffering from Bright's disease, and who, in consultation with eminent colleagues, was treated with all other known therapeutic remedies without avail, was completely cured through the use of Warner's Safe Cure."	 Mr. J. B. Hess, teacher of Sandbuechel by Rorschach, Switzerland, says: "For many years my health was unsatisfactory, until in 1894 the disease showed itself in an alarming way, and it was found that I suffered from Bright's disease, for which I employed Warner's Safe Cure, and after a thorough treatment was completely cured."
 Jai Jai Ram Misser, a prominent railroad man of India, says: "I was attacked by a fatal disease, dropsy. My whole body was filled with water, and kidneys refused to work. I tried various remedies and skillful surgeons in vain. At last I was told to prepare for death. I commenced Warner's Safe Cure, and as bottles effected a complete cure."	 Baron V. Weisreiter, M. D., of Vienna, a gentleman of standing and distinction in his profession, in that land where great scientists exist, relates the following experience: "I have used Warner's Safe Cure on divers occasions, being subjected to liver complaint with depression of spirits, and the use of the medicine has been attended with most satisfactory results."	 Hon. E. A. Stone, Judge of the Supreme Court of Australia and a legal light in the nation to which he has the honor to belong, expresses himself in these words: "I have used Warner's Safe Cure on divers occasions, being subjected to liver complaint with depression of spirits, and the use of the medicine has been attended with most satisfactory results."	 Prof. J. Polrand, B. A., B. Sc., Paris, attests: "After weeks of suffering from inflammation of the bladder, during which time, although under noted specialists, the disease steadily developed and I rapidly grew weaker, I resorted to the use of Warner's Safe Cure. It promptly relieved the painful symptoms, and I conscientiously say my present good health is solely due to Warner's Safe Cure."

There has never been, in the history of Science or the Nations, so united an expression from all quarters of the globe as the above. Do you not think, reader, that if this Great Remedy has been so valuable to the people throughout the world that it may also help you? Do not try any cheap things, but use that which has been proven purest, best, and most scientific.

A "Puritan" gas or oil Heater is easily put up, and gives as much heat as a room requires. "Puritan" heaters are mostly used where the heat system doesn't reach or to give additional heat when desired.

"Puritan" gas heaters, $3.25,

—which is the lowest priced. It is said of this heater that it distributes heat more evenly about the room than any other gas heater, by reason of its construction. It is also said to burn less gas to the amount of heat given out. The $3.25 size will heat a medium-sized room.

Other sorts of gas heaters, such as the "Home Comfort" at $2.25 and small round gas heaters at $1.25 and $2.

"Puritan" oil heaters, $4.

An oil heater is often preferred to a gas heater, because it is portable. There is no oil heater which is so thoroughly made or so powerful as the "Puritan." The size at $4 will heat a medium-sized room, yet will consume but 5c. worth of oil in ten hours. Larger size heaters if you want them. A combination oil heater and cooker for $2.

GAS RADIATORS, $4.50 up.

This Radiator at $4.50 has 4 tubes, nickel-plated base and top, and is full jeweled.

"Fire King" is acknowledged the best, and lowest-price one costs $7.50. This Radiator has 12 jewels and 4 extra large ornamented tubes. The largest and best size costs $12.

Valentine felt weather strip, 2c. ft.

If you have used the poor rubber strip you can best appreciate Valentine's felt sort, which doesn't "chip off." They last a lifetime almost, and save many times their cost in a single season by keeping out the chilly winds and draughts. Easily put up, or we will do it for you, which won't cost much.

A perfect bath-tub enamel

—at last. HOT OR COLD WATER, STEAM OR SOAP WILL NOT AFFECT IT IN THE LEAST. With a pint can of it any bath tub can be made to look like new. Dries with a beautiful porcelain finish. 60c. a pint can. 25c. for small jars.

16-Inch Japanned Coal Hods, 20c. each.

Furnace Scoops, 50c.

Covered Ash Sifters, 60c.

Galvanized Iron Ash Cans, $2.40.

MR. BERRY'S SLEEPY HENS.

They Rode Seventeen Miles on a Wagon Reach Without Waking Up.

From the Portland Daily Press.

Linn Berry has a big chicken farm in West Buxton, and has several hundred hens. He brings many eggs and chickens (dead and dressed) to Portland. He loads his wagon the night before and starts at 3 a.m. He has only to hitch up the horses and drive off. He did so last Monday morning. It is a drive of seventeen miles to this city. He reached here at just about sunrise.

As he approached the United States Hotel to deliver some produce some one shouted
